

Madison County, Indiana • International Companies

Conveniently located off Interstate 69 in central Indiana, Madison County is recognized as an emerging suburb of the growing Indianapolis metropolitan area with a diverse economic base in various industrial sectors from Advanced Technology & Manufacturing to Food Processing. Madison County offers redundant utilities at low prices, low cost of living, training and support of two top universities, an experienced workforce, and a rich multicultural quality of life. This diversity in business and culture has assisted Madison County in attracting over 15 international companies, including the world's largest food manufacturer, Nestlé. Countries currently represented in Madison County include Canada, China, Germany, Israel, Italy, Japan, Thailand, and Switzerland. Madison County is committed to provide assistance to companies from abroad in any way possible.

Company	Country	Industry Sector
Altairnano	China	Lithium Ion Batteries
ELSA L.L.C.	Japan	Automotive Parts Manufacturer
Wild Cat Wind Farm	Canada	Wind Farm - Enbridge Climate & Renewables
GTI Anderson	Japan	Tier I Automotive Parts Manufacturer
HDP	Israel	Resin-based Product Manufacturer
Carter Logistics	Japan	Logistics and Distribution - Hitachi Transport
Italpollina	Italy	Organic Biostimulant Fertilizer Manufacturer
Keihin N.A.	Japan	Tier I Automotive Manufacturing North American HQ and Engineering Center
LeClanché N.A.	Switzerland	Lithium Ion Batteries, North American HQ
Mancor Industries	Canada	Metal Component Precision Manufacturer
Muhlen-Sohn Inc.	Germany	Heavy Woven Fabric Belting for Corrugated industry
NTN Driveshaft	Japan	Automotive Driveshaft Manufacturer
Nestlé USA	Switzerland	Food and Beverage Production and Distribution
Royal Interpack	Thailand	Recycled Plastic Food Packaging Manufacturer
Sirmax	Italy	Automotive and Appliance Parts Manufacturer
Taditel U.S.	Israel	Advanced Microelectronic Technologies R&D
Tecnoplast USA	Italy	Plastics Processing, Technological Equipment for Chemical Products